

APPENDIX ONE

TABLE OF HEADERS & TABLE OF TAGS

TABLE OF HEADERS

These are items that should be inserted into each file that comprises the notes to a single chapter of a biblical book. “xxx” stands for any three-letter biblical book code, and “n” stands for any number.

Tag name	Form of tag
Chapter no.	# xxx n
Verse no.	### n

TABLE OF TAGS

1. Filtering tags. Use these tags to allow users to find certain kinds of notes.
Verse number	#vn	#v1, #v2-4
Advanced level note	#adv	#adv
Biblical theme	#bt-xxx	#bt-theophany
Theological stance	#ts-xxx	#ts-infantbap
2. Scripture-linking tags. Use these tags link notes to other Scripture passages in a specified way.
Allusion	#xa-xxx	#xa-isa40:3
Cross-reference*	#xr-xxx	#xr-gen1:1
Direct quote	#xq-xxx	#xq-gen12:3
Multiple note insertion* *This tag copies your note and inserts it in another passage as specified.	#xxxn:n	#luk1:1
*These tags are not functional at this time. They are on our wish-list for imminent development.

SEE NEXT PAGE

3. Resource-linking tags. Use these tags to link notes to other project resources.
Existing glossary entry	#g-xxx	#g-pent
Existing article	#a-xxx	#a-heaven
Existing map	#m-xxx	#m-Judea
Strong's number* Links to Strong's numbers can be found on-line at https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Strong%27s_Concordance	#hn.. #an.. #gn..	#H305 #A1933 #G58
4. Workflow tags. Use these tags to perform certain tasks in the process of creating notes.
Question	#q	#q
Desired glossary entry	#dg-xxx	#dg-heaven
Desired article	#da-xxx	#da-hell
Desired map	#dm-xxx	#dm-Egypt
Desired biblical theme	#dbt-xxx	#dbt-judgment
Desired theological stance	#dts-xxx	#dts-eternsec

